Palma, Spain, 7 November 2023– Bedsonline, in collaboration with Los Angeles Tourism, Universal Studios Hollywood and Delta Air Lines, has announced a rare opportunity for travel agents based in Australia and New Zealand to join a five-day familiarization (fam) trip to Los Angeles.

Travel agents who book participating hotels in Los Angeles and tickets to Universal Studios Hollywood before the end of the year will automatically be in with a chance of winning a VIP spot. The 10 agents with the highest total value of qualifying Los Angeles hotel and Universal Studios Hollywood ticket bookings by 31 December 2023 will win their place in this exciting opportunity.

Peter Jones, VP for APAC at Bedsonline, said: “Experiencing a destination is the best way to sell it. That’s why we’re excited to partner with Los Angeles Tourism, Universal Studios Hollywood and Delta provide this incredible fam trip to our clients in Australia and New Zealand. We value the hard work travel agents do and hope this trip serves both as a reward and an inspiration for their future sales efforts.”

The trip is scheduled to take place in March 2024 and is exclusively reserved for travel agents based in Australia and New Zealand to experience Los Angeles. Winners will gain in-depth knowledge of the city while experiencing the iconic landmarks, the charm of Universal Studios Hollywood and the palm tree-lined streets of the city of Angels.
